List of Documents

The following documents are required of all visa applicants:

All nonimmigrant visa applicants (regardless of age) are required to submit the DS-160 Non-Immigrant Visa Electronic Application. Form DS-160 must be completed online. At the time of the interview, applicants must submit the printed confirmation page with the bar code. To complete the DS-160, please visit <https://ceac.state.gov/genniv>.

IMPORTANT NOTE: Changes to the DS-160 can only be made BEFORE you electronically sign and submit it. Please make sure that all the information you provided on your DS-160 form is correct BEFORE you hit the Sign and Submit button. To make changes in your incomplete application, you may utilize the Retrieve Incomplete Application option. Using this option, you can retrieve applications that were initiated no later than 30 days ago. Alternatively, you can use the Save option to save the application on your computer or portable data storage device. In the latter case, the CEAC system will create a *.DAT file, which you can open later to continue your application.

The DS-160 must be completed before scheduling an appointment. The DS-160 confirmation number (barcode number) is required to complete the appointment booking.

A passport valid for travel to the United States and valid for at least 6 months beyond the applicant's intended period of stay in the United States unless country specific agreements provide exceptions. Consult <http://www.state.gov/documents/organization/104770.pdf> for exemptions. If more than one person is included in the passport, each person desiring a visa must make an application.

A non-refundable application fee for each application.

The visa application fee is determined by the type of visa that the applicant is applying for. Based on the information that the applicant has provided, the fee is the equivalent of USD$160. Examples of visas in this category are: Visitor Visa for business/pleasure (B-1/B-2), Exchange Visitor Visa (J), Student Visa (F), Non-Academic Student Visa (M), Journalist Visa (I) and Crew Visa (C-1/D).

Applicants must be prepared to explain to the consular officer in their interview:

The purpose of the trip, how long they intend to remain in the United States, and how they will cover the costs of the trip. Officers will generally seek information about the applicant's binding obligations - such as family ties or employment - that would compel them to return home after their trip to the United States. Although the officer might not request documentation, applicants may bring relevant paperwork to provide if requested.

Security Advice

Please be sure to arrive on time. NOTE: Applicants arriving earlier than 20 minutes before their scheduled appointment time will be asked to leave and return at the specified time.

Present the appointment confirmation and documentation to the Consular Section upon arrival. If the applicant needs a Canadian visa to enter Canada to apply for a visa, it is the applicant's responsibility to obtain one.

The following items are not permitted in the Consular Section: backpacks, bags, luggage, large purses or briefcases, oversized strollers, cameras, tape recorders, pagers, cell phones, video cameras, radios, iPods, mp3 players, calculators, computers, bluetooth or any wireless device, electronic car keys, food and drink, any sort of fire starter, tools or actual and potential weapons including sharp or pointed items. This list is not all-inclusive; the Consular Section reserves the right to deny entry of any items deemed suspicious. Guards are required to search all applicant's belongings prior to entry into the Consular Section.

Any visitor who declines to be screened by Consular Section security personnel will be prohibited from entering the Consular Section.

Appearing for an interview does not guarantee a visa will be issued. In most cases, if the visa is issued, it will be available for pick-up at the DHL location of the applicant's choice within the following three business days. However, in some cases, visa applications may require special processing that can take several weeks or months for approval. Because processing times vary, the applicant should request a visa interview well in advance of the planned departure for the United States and should not make non-refundable travel arrangements until the visa has been received.

Applicants should bear in mind that they may stand outside the facilities for some time, please dress according to weather conditions on the day of your appointment.

Reciprocity Fee

Depending on the applicant's country of citizenship and the type of visa being applied for, the applicant may also be required to pay a fee for visa issuance, known as a reciprocity fee. The applicant may obtain this information by visiting the following Web site: http://travel.state.gov/visa/fees/fees\_3272.html

Personal Appearance

In general, all applicants must appear in person for the visa interview at which time, in addition to an interview, the consular officer will digitally capture the fingerprints of applicants ages between 14 and 79. Under very limited circumstances the personal appearance requirement may be waived (medical emergencies), but the applicant must still be physically present in the district where the application is submitted.

In the case of applicants under 14 years, a parent or guardian must appear in person to accompany them.

Accompanying Persons

The following persons may accompany a visa applicant during his or her visit to the Consular Section:

Interpreters: An applicant may bring one interpreter if he does not speak English (or French if applying in Montreal or Quebec City) well enough to participate unassisted in the visa interview.

Special Needs Assistants: An applicant may bring one person to assist him if he is elderly, disabled, or a minor child.

The following persons may NOT be allowed into the U.S. Embassy or Consulate premises:

Attorneys: An applicant may NOT be accompanied by his or her attorney(s).

Drivers, friends, extra relatives, and others not specifically named above cannot be permitted to enter and will be asked to return to meet the applicant after the interview is complete.

Due to the limited size of the Consular Section waiting rooms, the high volume of visa applicants, and the time required to screen consular clients, other accompanying persons cannot and will not be admitted to the Consular Section.
